Five sex workers - four women and one man - along with the filmmaker/narrator embark on a journey of storytelling. This film explores the power of collective organizing and resistance while reflecting upon contemporary debates around sex work. The simultaneously expansive and labyrinthine city of Calcutta forms the backdrop for the personal and musical journeys of storytelling.

This is three of four films in the series. For any questions on Direct Action: A Feminist Film Series, please contact Dr. Sekile Nzinga-Johnson at sekile3@uic.edu.
