The Pre-Law Society at the University of Illinois at Chicago is a student run organization that strives to inform and prepare UIC students for admission to law school and beyond.

Our Guiding Objectives

- Help members make an informed decision of whether or not to attend law school, and to which law schools to apply.
- Expose members to various legal fields and introduce them to the different options they have with a law degree.
- Assist members in their efforts to get admitted to law school by guiding them through the admissions process and with knowledge of the LSAT
