

PAID MUSEUM STUDIES INTERNSHIPS

THE INDIAN ARTS RESEARCH CENTER

at the School for Advanced Research in Santa Fe, NM, offers two nine-month paid Anne Ray internships to college graduates or junior museum professionals. Internships include salary, housing, book allowance, roundtrip travel to SAR, and attendance to a professional conference. Interns participate in the daily collections, registration, and program activities of the IARC and benefit from the mentorship of staff and resident scholars.

Deadline to apply March 1
